

Deborah Halifax

Deborah became a Christian at South Hants Bible Camps. She was a camper, tent leader and assistant manager on camp. She is a member of the core group at HTB's Onslow Square site in London. HTB (Holy Trinity Brompton) is a large Anglican church most famous for the evangelistic Alpha course and its programme of social action.

Having trained in youth work, teaching and law, Deborah prefers young people to lawyers and teaches in a secondary school in central London. Teaching keeps her out of trouble, but she still works in a pro bono capacity with vulnerable people needing access to legal assistance. Her focus with HCT will be increasing its educational reach.
