

Jim Halifax

Born in May 1938, Jim spent his childhood in the care of the Thomas Coram Foundation. He met his first bible believing Christian whilst serving as a national servicemen in the Royal Navy, and became a committed Christian at age 20. Trained as an accountant he worked in this capacity in the shipping industry, and continues in private practise. He is married to Jean. Together they have three adult daughters, and three grandchildren. He and Jean were for many years closely involved with South Hants Bible Camps, and have worked together in the development and management of the Lockerley campsite.
