

Mark Donaghy

Born in 1982 and became a Christian at the age of 9. Married with three young children.

Educated at Sparsholt Agricultural College gaining qualifications in horticulture, serving an apprenticeship at Hambrooks, a local landscaping gardening company and now runs his own successful gardening business.

Has grown up attending Christian camps and, over recent years has become heavily involved in the work and development of the site at Lockerley.