

Martin Fielder

Martin is married to Maureen with three sons and three grand-children. He is an Elder of his local Church and is also a lay-preacher. Martin qualified as a Chartered Production Engineer and worked for a large electronics company until the age of thirty, when he was made redundant.

For the last thirty three years Martin has been working as a self employed Landscape Gardner. He has been involved with the Hampshire Christian Trust since its inception.